1984 EAGLE

DIAMOND HILL JARVIS HIGH SCHOOL
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

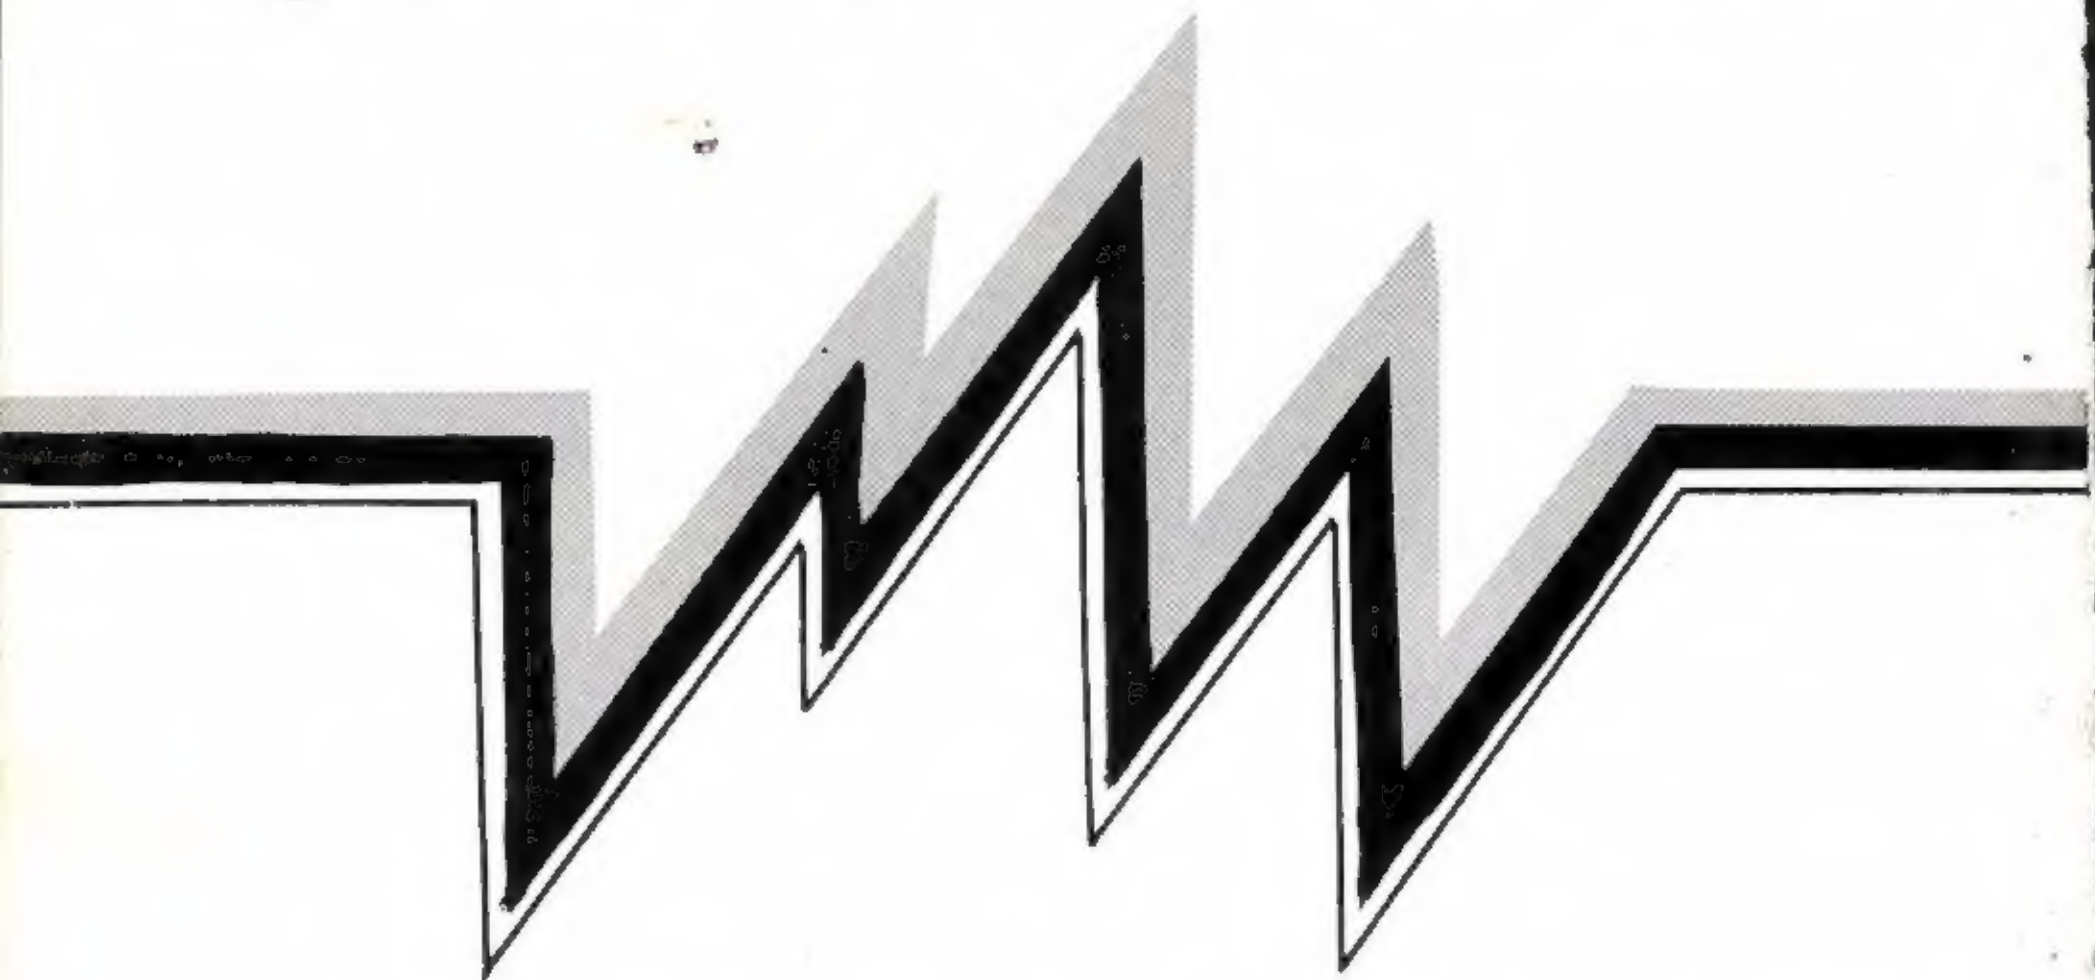

Just as the Beatles affected the World of Music, and MTV affected the World of Entertainment, so shall the 1984 Eagle affect the World of Diamond Hill Jarvis.

The elements of its composition are not new. Yearbooks are always composed of photographs and words, just as songs are always composed of melodies and harmonies. But if rhythm and arrangement are the variables that make music distinctive, we hope focus and style will be the variables that make the eagle distinctive - and as memorable as your music.

I had to find the passage

To the place I was before.

Well come on,
all you people.
The time has come
to get it together.
You gotta have a little Rock

To get you through the

And do whatever you feel.
When you let go, nothing's gonna help you more than
Rock 'n' Roll

and Sherry Love. Top: Balvina Escamilla and Cindy Garcia.

At D.H.J., the games began at 2:15 pm when the band jammed, the drill team grooved, the cheerleaders sparkled, and the student body crowded into the auditorium to cheer their team to victory. While the team lost 10 straight games, pep rallies symbolized the life left at D.H.J.

Homecoming

Homecoming Queen 1983
Sylvia Ybarra

If a single event united the Diamond Hill community in 1983, it was Homecoming at D.H.J. Former students were fed and entertained by hosts and hostesses in the Hospitality Room, treated to a tour of their alma mater, and recognized at the pep rally.

Although mums and lavish decorations, were not unique to D.H.J. in October, spirit chains were unique. This year, the Junior class strung the longest chain.

The 1983 Eagles were defeated by a score of 40-0, but the party never died.

Halloween

On Halloween Day, the students of D.H.J. competed in a costume contest sponsored by F.H.A. Marcus Phillips, dressed as a stumble bum, won the prize for Best Dressed Male. The award for Best Dressed Female went to Rosa Ramirez. Count Braudaway won Best Dressed Male Teacher, and Mrs. Crayola Coulson was named Best Dressed Female Teacher.

Christmas

The last class day of 1983 was marked by snow. Though the Snow Ball brought us good fun, and Santa's presence helped us to be charitable, it was the snow that allowed us to feel the spirit of Christmas around us. And if the footprints we left in the snow didn't last forever, the marks we left on the hearts of our friends did.

"Tribute"

An old theatrical cliché, "The Show Must Go On," became a rule of thumb during the rehearsal process that preceded the presentation of Tribute to DHJ. We could say, like inept filmmakers do, that Tribute was "months in the making." But the fact is that it just took Ms. Montague and her cast a while to "get their act together." But what an act!

On January 17, "neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow, nor dead of night" kept the cast from making its appointed message clear. Tribute was a funny play about a man who was dying, but also a play of passion. In the end, the leading man said, "If I could wish one thing for you, it's passion- for anything or anybody that will go the distance." The cast and crew of Tribute did.

Awards Night

In addition to the three R's, two A's mattered at D.H.J. in 1984 - achievement and attendance. We heard about them on the announcements, in homeroom, and from every teacher we had. So in January, it came as no surprise when Awards Night was announced to honor those who had excelled in achievement and attendance. Certificates were given to many, radios and telephones to a select few, and a portable TV to grand prize winner Tina Shaw.

March 16th saw the UIL one-act play, "A Thousand Clowns", travel to District contest at Grapevine High School.

March 31st saw UIL Academic Competitions begin at Keller High School. DH-J was represented well in the fields of Science by Mrs. Palmer's biology students, in Language Arts by Ms. Burns' Spellers and Ready Writers, and in Speech by Ms. Montague's interpreters.

Cheerleaders

Five girls volunteered to be Varsity Cheerleaders at the end of the 1982-83 year. All five girls were Juniors: Co-Captain Balvina Escamilla, Co-Captain Sherry Love, Sandy Flores, Sheila Meyer, and Julia Turpin. Their sponsor was Mrs. Joyce Sidwell.

The squad went to camp at NTSU during the summer. There they won three blue ribbons and one spirit stick. The girls practiced every day during the summer and fall on new cheers.

CLOCKWISE: Julia Turpin, Co-Captain Balvina Escamilla, Sheila Meyer, Co-Captain Sherry Love, and Sandra Flores

The 1983-84 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were Captain Debbie Bowers, Lisa Cooper, and Cynthia Garcia. They dedicated every day during the summer and almost every afternoon during the fall to practicing the cheers they performed at the games.

Ever wonder how to become a cheerleader? "All you need is good grades," said Debbie Bowers, "and determination."

D.H.J. Jewels

Dedication, Desire, and Determination characterized the Diamond Hill Jewel Drill Team. Although the Jewels were not great in number, they were great in effort. Their performances required many hours of practice to perfect. They performed at football halftime shows, home basketball games, and competed against other drill teams in area competitions.

I.C.T.-V.I.C.A.

Sponsored by Mr. Bill Summitt, D.H.J.'s I.C.T. program assisted students in acquiring jobs in such fields as auto mechanics, carpentry, and plumbing. Training like this was a concrete foundation to successful careers. In class, students learned about leadership as well as particular career responsibilities.

Show Choir

D.H.J.'s Show Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa Barminski, distinguished itself in countless arenas. In costumes styled from the hit movie FLASHDANCE, the Show Choir performed at TWC's Choral Festival, the Show Choir Contest at Cedar Valley College, and the All-City and UIL Contests in Fort Worth. As well, it attained considerable recognition by appearing in the DFW Amfac Hotel Christmas program and on Fort Worth's cable TV station. In addition, they provided program entertainment at the annual Christmas presentation and for Fort Worth's cable TV station. Under the guidance of Mrs. Cheryl Brangan, Mrs. Normia Lyles, Mrs. Bonnie Robison, and Mrs. Karen Welch, the club sponsored the Great American Smoke Out, decorated Christmas trees at J.P.S. Hospital, sang carols for and presented to residents of the Jarvis Heights Nursing Home handmade surprises and refreshments, collected can goods for the needy, and participated in the state Youth Against Cancer workshop.

Gina Lowe was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Fort Worth I.S.D. FHA City Council. Whether members chose to involve themselves in Homemaking, Home Economics, Child Development, or Food Services, they honored themselves and D.H.J. through community and humanitarian service.

J.E.T.

True! The Jarvis Energy Team exerted itself in an effort to launch a touring program dedicated to the elimination of alcohol abuse among teenagers. But energy was not all that filled these young people. There was a driving concern and a wholehearted compassion within the hearts of each who gave of his time and energy to this cause.

Ms Jan Hardin and Mr. Charlie Tuggle sponsored J.E.T.

Thespians

Troupe 2079 of the International Thespian Society congregated here at DHJ. Its clubhouse was room 101, and its goal was to learn and practice the ultimate act of gift-giving: entertaining others. As a result, these future Jack Nicholson's and Meryl Streep's did what they do best: had a great time together.

Building Trades

Building Trades prepared students for jobs in carpentry, plumbing, masonry, and electrical fields. Building Trades was divided into two classes. Each class lasted three consecutive periods. The primary objective of building trades was job training. The students collectively built and sold a house each year.

Eagle Staff

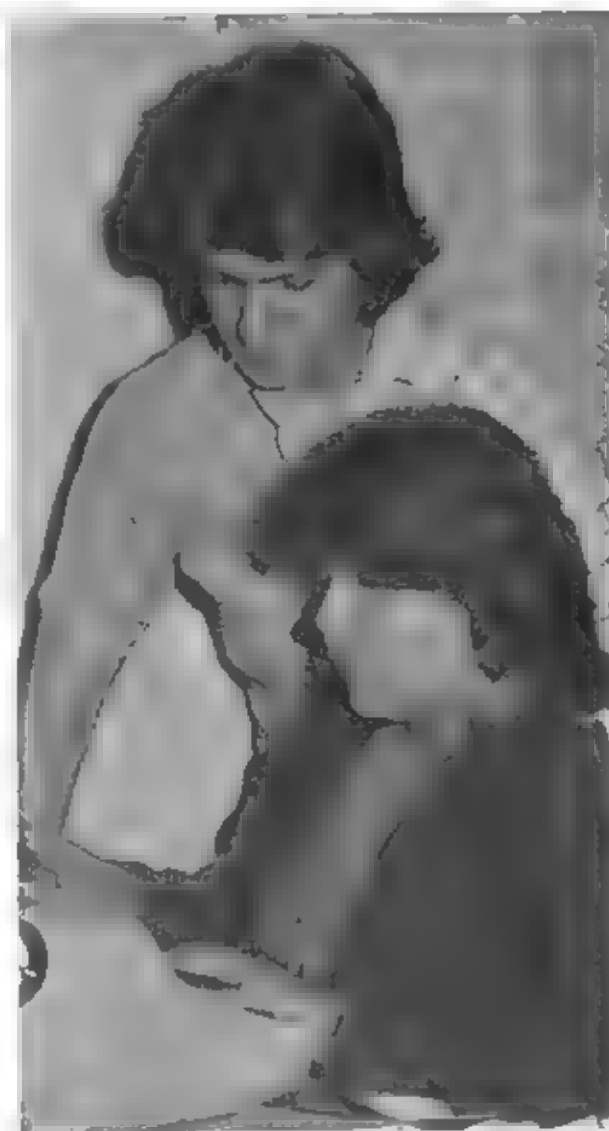

Capturing the spirit of student life at D.H.J. and assembling the highlights for publication was no easy task, but my sincere hope is that it was a rewarding one for each member of the 1984 Eagle staff. No significant work is ever completed effortlessly, and no real joy is ever realized unless selfless contributions are made.

Among those who contributed were Editor Nora Santana, Assistant Editor Rick Jesser, Business Manager Alex Salazar, Copy Editor Juan Ocura, and Photographer Cindy Morales.

My special thanks go to Monica Gonzales for keeping me sane, Linda Alcocer for helping me to laugh, and Becky Hicks for keeping me organized.

TRIUMPH

Varsity Football

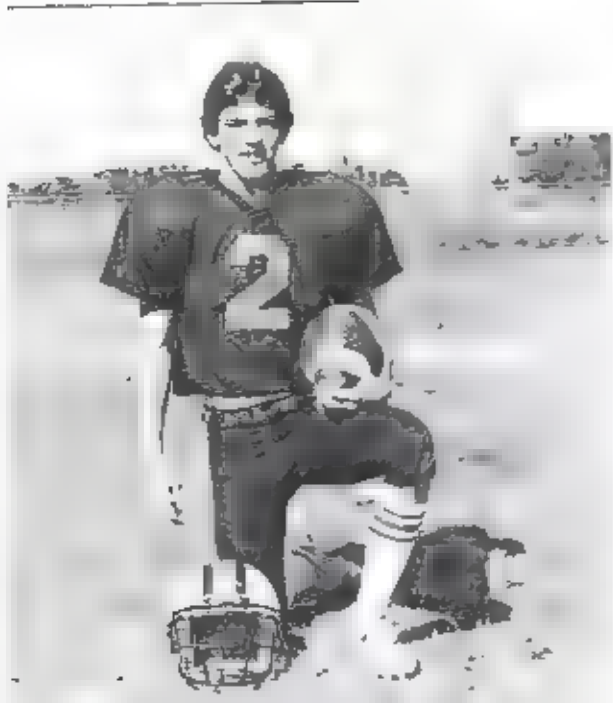

The 1983 Eagle Football Team faced many challenges during the year, but perhaps none as great as the number of injuries to key players. Injuries set the team back both physically and emotionally. From the 1st scrimmage to the last game, the players tried to regroup and learn new positions but couldn't put it together.

However, many underclassmen gained valuable game experience which could help next year. With a large number of varsity players returning next year, a proper attitude and total commitment will be established and may turn the team around.

Freshmen Football

The freshmen football team was one which had lessons to learn but enough spirit to learn them well.

They won six games and only lost twice, but the two losses probably taught them more than all of their wins put together.

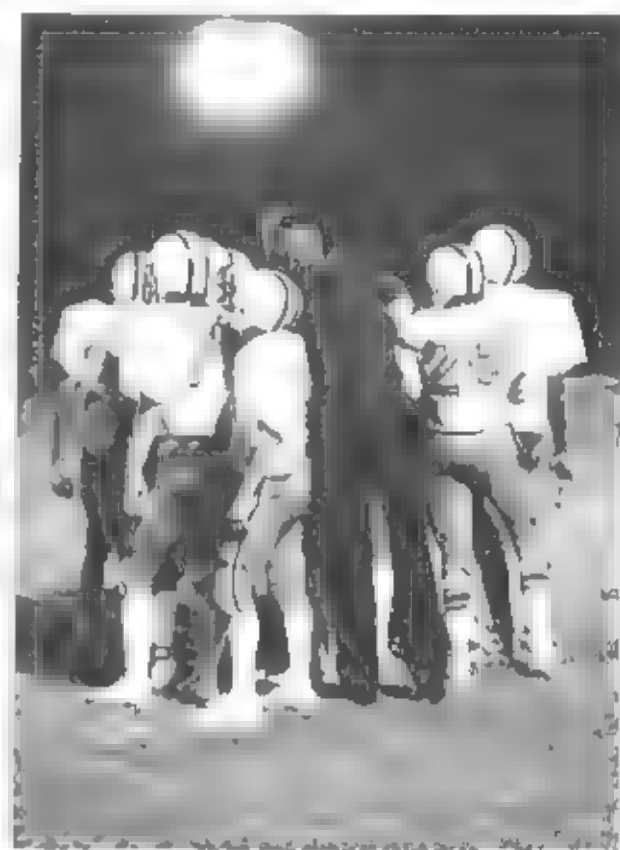

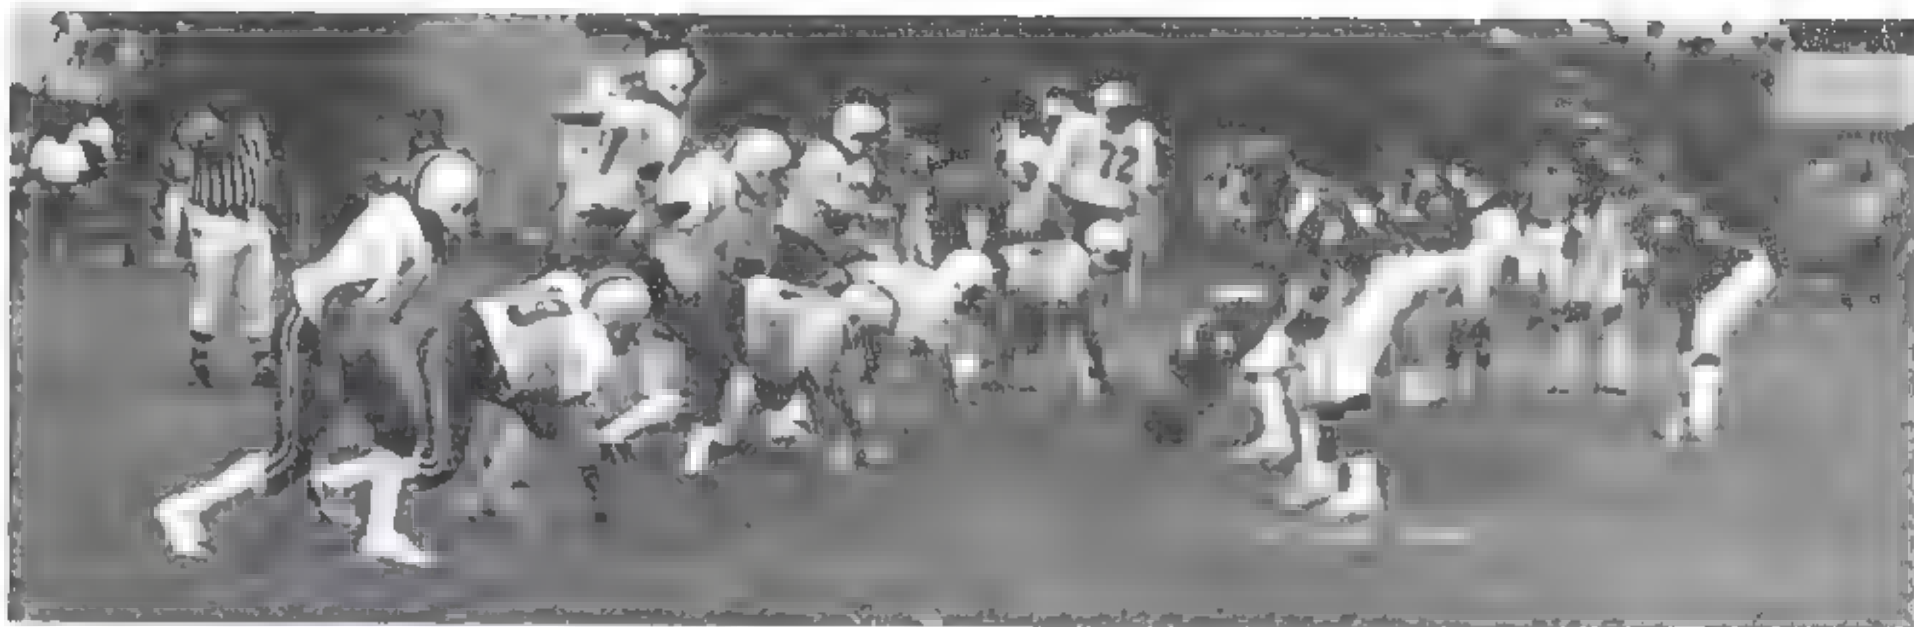

So here's to a group of young men who should dedicate themselves to developing their abilities, and to attaining their highest educational and competitive goals.

Coach Wilson

and Sammy Soria and kneeling, Mark Lira, Joe Vedia, David Keller, Alonzo Patterson, Elias Ramirez, Andre Dean, and Darrell Hill.

Varsity Volleyball C-C-Cool!

Once upon a time, in a galaxy far, far away, they (whoever they were) would have called this team good. Some would even have termed it hot.

But the slang of 1983, like the DHJ Varsity Volleyball season, called for reverse thinking. The team, hence, was not good. It was bad. And it certainly wasn't hot. It was cool. And when the girls psyched the opposition, they did it well (or rather, badly ...)

Varsity Volleyball Team includes Diana Cavazos, Cindy Morales, Sophia Ayala, Penny Blanton, Stephanie Perez, Beth Bond, Rhonda Smith, and Linda Alcocer.

Rhonda Smith shows us an overhead bump.

Sophia Ayala gets ready for the return.

J.V. Volleyball

Amidst the bumps, spikes, and set-ups, there were joys, sorrows, and frustrations. Many games were won, and only a few lost. No matter how the games turned out, however, the J.V. Volleyball Team knew that they had done their best.

Freshmen Volleyball

1983 was a good year for the Freshmen Volleyball team. It sometimes seemed as if there was a lot of blood, sweat, and tears, but the girls were determined to win. Although some games didn't turn out perfectly, the girls were happy with their performance.

Varsity Basketball

This season was like a movie called "The Right Stuff." The dedication, hard work, and sacrifice each player made resulted in accomplishment. Surviving adversity and attacking new challenges was our motto, and success, our goal. We made a lot of noise in District 4AAAA, and are shooting for the stars next season.

JV Basketball

The J. V. Basketball team was an integral part of D. H. J. sports. It was here that young players grew and learned the fine points of basketball that prepared them for varsity competition. This year's team was smaller than preceding J. V. teams, but showed great spirit.

MIDDLE: The offense is in action.
BOTTOM RIGHT: The reserves wait for a chance to play. TOP: The JV

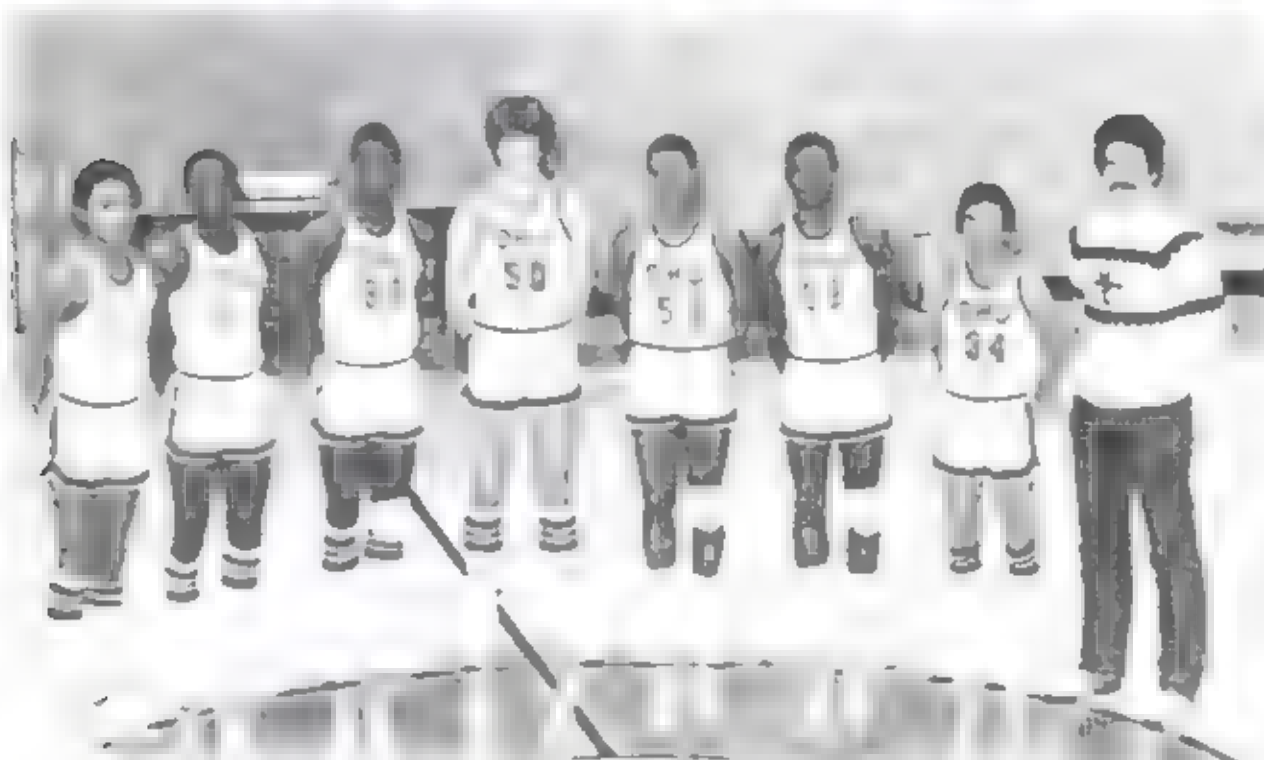

Basketball Team includes Coach Jackson, Patrick Lira, John Weeks, Hoan Dinh, Juan Carlin, David Solis, Clyde Johnson.

Freshmen Basketball

The Freshmen Basketball team had much early season success, highlighted by a second place finish in the Weatherford Tournament. These hard-working, talented young men were victorious because of the determined dedication with which they pursued their goals.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

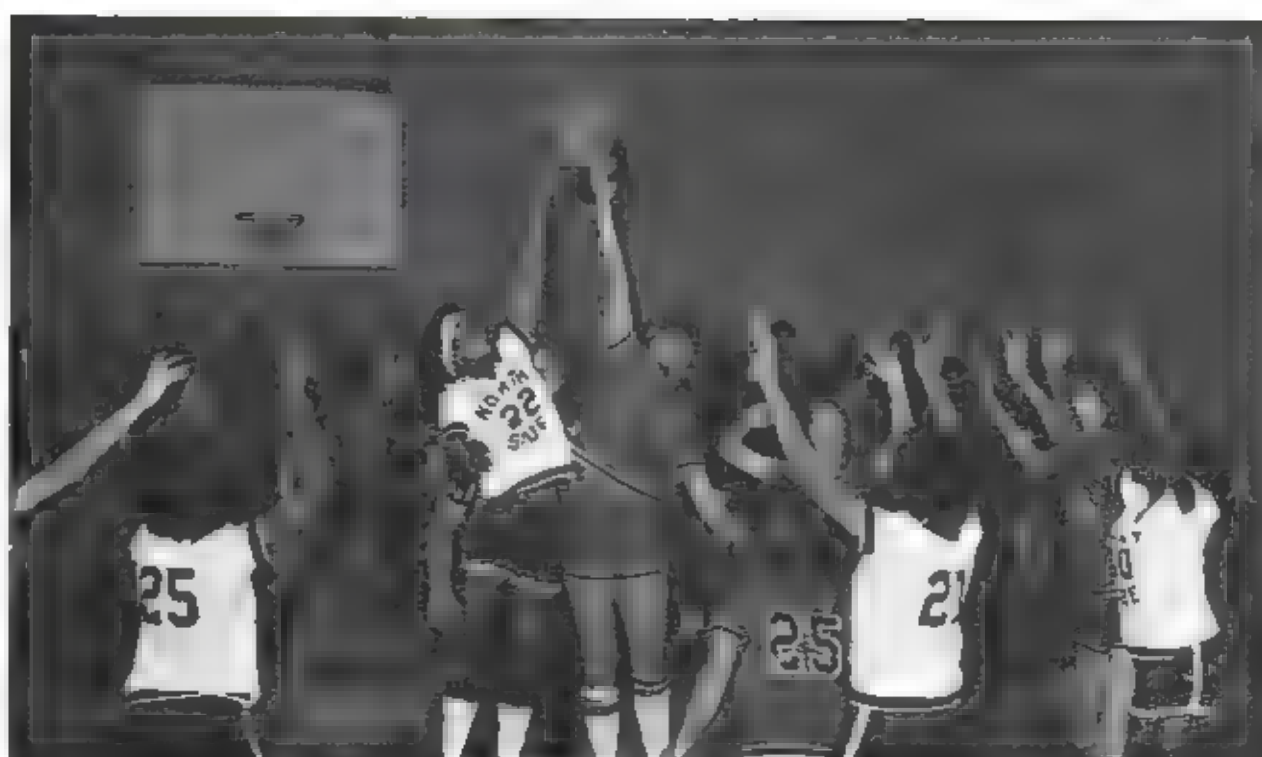

Under the leadership of Coach Craig Stacy, the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team pushed itself to new limits of endurance this season. The loss of numerous players forced the coaching staff to re-organize, and bring up 5 girls from the JV Team. In addition to that, opposition teams never stopped pressing. But for 4 months, good attitude and hustle remained an active part of the team's spirit, and kept the girls together.

Girls' J.V. Basketball

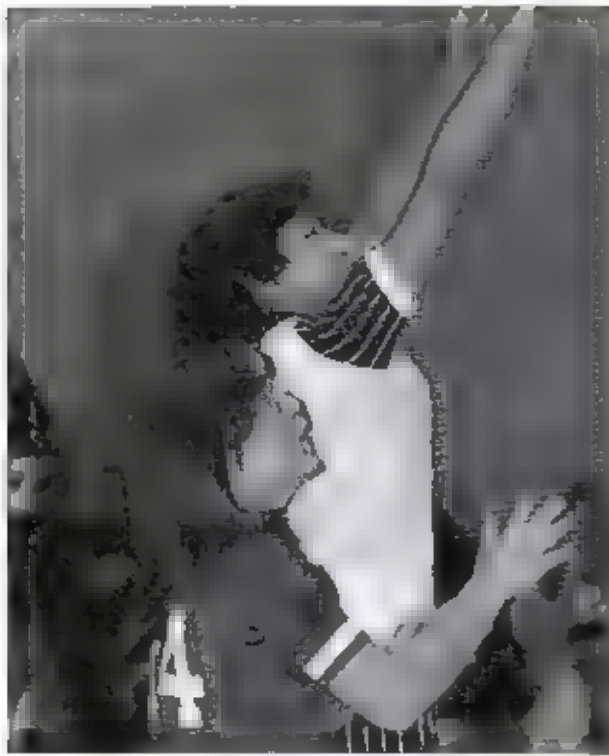

Spirit and teamwork were the by-words of the Girls' JV Basketball Team. Under the leadership of Coach Loyce Freed, the team defeated Lake Worth and Trinity Valley. Although the team's leading players were recruited by the Varsity Team mid-season, the JV finished the season with dedicated determination.

Girls' Freshmen Basketball

Although the 6 girls who made up the Freshmen Basketball Team had never before played together, they learned from Coach Olivia Reyes that teamwork and self determination were what basketball was all about. In January, the girls were recruited to play with the JV team.

Tennis

The 1984 Tennis team was coached by Val Spacher. This talented group of hard workers practiced long hours, day after day, working toward the accomplishment of their personal goal-to be the best! although winning was a major priority in their minds, the sport of tennis was enjoyed by all who participated.

Track

The experience of coaching girls' track this year belonged to Ms. Loyce Freed. Coach Leon Jackson instructed boys' track. Individual goals were set for each member of the DHJ track team, and practice required long hours of hard work and dedication for each of the promising athletes. In short, track at DHJ symbolized the true meaning of sportsmanship: giving it your best shot.

DH-J Varsity Baseball

With mitt and bat in hand, the Diamond Hill-Jarvis Varsity Baseball Squad romped onto the field in an attempt to capture a third consecutive North Zone title.

Last season, the great majority of star Eagle players graduated, but this season's team consisted of young and aggressive speedsters. Under the leadership of Seniors Alex Salazar, Paul Ramirez, and All-District returnee Eddie Cortez, the Eagles entered the season with determination and victory on their minds. The DH-J team was coached by Mr. Jimmy Torres.

JV Baseball

With many of the talented underclassmen being called up to fill holes on the Varsity, the JV team will start the season both young and inexperienced. Calling on the freshman to aid the sophomores that remain from a strong freshman group a year ago, the JV matured into a fine team as the season progressed. The DH-J team was coached by Jim Tinius.

In Memory

LANCE CORPORAL MICHAEL FULTON, U.S.M.C.

In a year that saw the downing of a Korean Air Lines jet by the Soviets and the death of 269 passengers; in a year that saw 200,000 West Germans join hands to form a 65-mile long human chain in protest of nuclear escalation; in a year that saw a fictional nuclear war destroy Kansas City on TV's THE DAY

AFTER - in that year, 1983, the travesty of international violence was felt in Diamond Hill, too, when its own Michael Fulton, Class of 1980, was among the 239 American servicemen killed in Beirut, Lebanon on October 23.
